

5th meeting of the Large Animal Research Network (LARN)

Wednesday 19th June 2019

Easter Bush Research Centre, Royal (Dick) School of Veterinary Studies

09:00 Registration and coffee
Meet the Trade Exhibitors

09:30 Welcome and Introduction
Eddie Clutton, University of Edinburgh

Morning Chair: Eddie Clutton

09:35 Measuring stress and welfare in large animals
Emma Baxter, Scotland's Rural College

10:20 The OPA model (application, regulation and practicalities)
Stefano Guido, Mark Gray, Rachael Gregson, University of Edinburgh

11:05 Refreshment break

11:20 GM large animals for translational research
Simon Lilloco, University of Edinburgh

11:50 Modelling Batten's Disease in Sheep
Tom Wishart, University of Edinburgh

12:20 PREPARE and ARRIVE
Eddie Clutton

13:00 Lunch break

- Site visits - LARIF, Equine Hospital, WTCCLLA - hosted by: Tim King, James Nixon, Chris Proudfoot, Rachael Gregson, Stephen Greenhalgh and Eddie Clutton
- Trade Exhibition and Networking

Afternoon Chair: Stephen Greenhalgh, University of Edinburgh

15:30 Low atmospheric pressure stunning in pigs
Jess Martin, University of Edinburgh

16:15 Pigs in the improved management of OP toxicity in human beings
Kosala Dissanayake, University of Edinburgh

17:00 Closing remarks
Eddie Clutton

The organisers are very grateful to the Exhibitors for their attendance and kind sponsorship of the meeting throughout the day. Hopefully, you will find opportunities throughout the day to meet with their representatives.

The following companies have kindly sponsored the LARN meeting.

The LARN organisers wish to express gratitude for their presence and sponsorship, and hope that you will take the opportunity to meet with them during the various refreshment breaks.

Vet·Tech

We are grateful to the Easter Bush Research Centre, Royal (Dick) School of Veterinary Studies for their help and support.