

The Hitchhikers Guide to your Establishment... are you searching for an answer to the meaning of life, the universe and everything?

24th February 2021
Virtual online event

- 09:50 Virtual online meeting link opens
- 10:00 Introduction to the Symposium
Anne-Marie Farmer, past LASA President
- 10:05 What does good governance look like?
Jan-Bas Prins, The Francis Crick Institute
- 10:50 Good governance = Good regulation
Will Reynolds & Kate Chandler, ASRU
- 11:35 Coffee
- 12:00 What does a culture of care look like? How can you benchmark your establishment?
Sally Robinson, AstraZeneca UK. Interactive session focusing on this theme
- 12:45 Care-ful Stories - an update from a pilot scheme developing culture of care training resources
Beth Greenhough, University of Oxford, Animal Research Nexus
- 13:15 Lunch
- 14:15 Do external audits assist with identifying areas for improvement?
Steve Street, Covance Laboratories Ltd
- 15:00 International collaboration - the good, the bad and the ugly
Sara Wells, MRC Harwell
- 15:30 Tea
- 16:00 Review and ideas for updating the Guiding Principles for Named Training and Competency Officers (NCO), Named Information Officers (NIO) and Home Office Liaison Contacts (HOLC) working under the Animals (Scientific Procedures) Act 1986 - Group discussion work
Caroline Chadwick & Val Summers, LASA HOLTIF Section Leads
- 17:00 Summing up of key points from discussion work and next actions
Caroline Chadwick & Val Summers, LASA HOLTIF Section Leads
- 17:15 Close