

Establishment Licence Holders' Autumn Forum

CSI : Compliance, Security, Implementation

17th October 2023

Francis Crick Institute, Midland Road, London
FINAL Programme

0930 - Registration and coffee

1000 - Introduction

Helmut Ehall, Chair, Establishment Licence Holders' Committee

1005 - Ministerial view on Better Regulation within the Laboratory Animal Science Sector
Lord Andrew Sharpe, Parliamentary Under-Secretary (Home Office) TBC

1020- Setting the direction for animals in science regulation

Dr Will Reynolds, Head of Animals in Science Regulation Policy Unit

1045 - ASRU operational update - improving governance

Dr Kate Chandler, Head of ASRU

1110 - Your role & engagement as a stakeholder with the ASC

Prof. David Main, Chair of The Animal in Science Committee Speaker

1120 - A partnership approach to managing AR activity

Ross McDermott, Director of Security, Inotiv

1155 - View from the House of Lords - personal reflections on the changing climate on animal welfare & animal research

Professor Lord Alexander Trees, working member of The House of Lords

1215 - Lunch

1330 - Series of short presentations from ELHs on audit experiences

James Bussell, University of Oxford; Dr Nick McMahon, GSK R&D; Ross Millard, Agenda Life Sciences.

1430 - Group discussion work - sharing of experiences, common challenges and possible solutions - topics to include providing evidence, data management, quality assurance, ensuring effectiveness of Named Persons etc

1530 - Feedback from group discussions

Chaired by Helmut Ehall, Chair, Establishment Licence Holders' Committee

1600 - Panel Q&A opportunity - ask those questions to the expert panel

Helmut Ehall, Dr Will Reynolds & Dr Kate Chandler

1625 - What the future holds for PELHs and the PELH Committee? What do you want from the PELH Committee? Followed by closing remarks Helmut Ehall

1630 - Opportunity for networking for PELHs with drinks

1800 - Closure of meeting